VERY CLOSE CALL FOR KENTUCKIANS

In a Leaky Vessel Ten Miles From Shore.

HARTFORD MAN IN THE CROWD

Death Seemed Near—Struggled For Lives In Gulf Of Mexico.

BUSY AT DEEP SEA FISHING

St. Petersburg, Fla., Feb. 16.—Desperately bailing with buckets or with anything that would hold water, with half those on board so seasick they could not do any work, a party of twenty men, some of them well known and wealthy visitors from the North, fought for more than an hour in the Gulf to keep their boat from sinking under them in water forty feet deep. In the party were Harry Sommers, editor of the Elizabethtown (Ky.) News; John T. Moore, cashier of the bank of Hartford, Ky.; E. G. and C. C. Norcross, wealthy lumber men of Tennessee; Prof. Whittaker, former State Librarian of Colorado; J. P. Folger, of Chattanooga, one of the wealthiest men in the South, and others who are prominent in their homes.

For nearly an hour the party was in imminent danger, and most of them never expected to get back to shore alive. All had on life preservers, as they expected the boat to sink under them. A heavy sea was running so that even with the life preservers they would have stood little chance of being saved, no boat being at all likely to pick them up. The tide was going out and the boat was being carried into the Gulf.

The party set out in a launch called the Safe and Sane. The boat is owned in Tampa, but has been tied up at Pass-a-Grille, engaged in taking parties to the grouper banks. She is forty feet long and wide of beam, with two engines. They were about ten miles in the Gulf, trying to locate the coral bottom, where the grouper are found, when somebody noticed water in the cabin. The men had been busy cutting up bait and the crew were all on deck handling the boat, so that the water had gained considerable headway before anybody noticed that there was a leak.

The boat was half full of water when it was discovered. The party at once turned to and began to bail. The engine was dead, as it was partly covered by water, and the boat was bounced around in the heavy seas to such an extent that half the men were soon seasick. Mr. Sommers and others who were not affected by the motion of the boat began to bail. They worked hard, tearing up the flooring so that everybody could get a chance to work, but the water kept gaining in spite of everything the men could do. With the water gaining steadily and the boat ten miles from shore, and the engine dead, it looked like they had no chance to get back home. After half an hour's hard work the water was held steady, the gain being stopped, but it was forty-five minutes before the ballers began to gain on the water. After more than an hour of work the level of the water was reduced so that the cause of the trouble could be located.

It was found that the crankshaft had been fastened with a set screw pulled out, leaving a hole in the propeller shaft belonged. This hole, more than an inch in diameter, the water poured into the boat. When it was found that the leak was through this hole the flow of water soon was stopped. The boat, having two engines, was able to get back to Pass-a-Grille, although the second engine, which had been wet and splashed with water, had to be dried and cleaned before it would run. The Safe and Sane limped into the pier at Pass-a-Grille, and everybody was thankful when they stepped onto the pier.

Mr. Sommers was in St. Petersburg to-day and told of the exciting trip and said he was through with deep-sea fishing. He said he had given up hope of getting back, as had all the others.

DYNAMITE EXPLOSION CAUSED GREAT CRASH

Winchester, Ky., Feb. 14.—An explosion of 1,000 sticks of dynamite on the works of Johnson & Braggs, on the new line to Irvine, two miles from the city, jarred all Winchester Friday morning and considerable small damage was done, a number of windows being broken. No one was injured. The dynamite was in a small house, where it was being thawed.

The building caught fire from the stove, which had become too hot, and flames soon reached the explosives.

The brick building was blown to pieces and a hole was torn in the ground about twelve feet in circumference.

Rocks and dirt were hurled for distances of two miles.

MANY PRISONERS ARE NOW SUBJECT TO PAROLE

Eddyville, Ky., Feb. 13.—Under the decision of Judge Settle, of the Court of Appeals, in relation to the indeterminate sentence and parole law, 217 prisoners in the Eddyville penitentiary are now subject to parole by the mandamus route. Seventy-five additional prisoners here would be entitled to parole under this court ruling next July.

THE "MYSTERIOUS CITY" BOUGHT BY CREDITORS

Those Holding Claims Paid $4-
481 For The $32,000
"Monte Carlo."

Henderson, Ky., Feb. 14.—The "Mysterious City" in Horseshoe Bend directly across the river from Evansville, with ten acres of land, a handsome and commodious concrete building, appurtenances and fixtures which are said to have cost $32,000 was sold by the Farmers Bank and Trust Company, as agent, here this afternoon at public outcry at the court house door for $4,481.78 to J. W. Bodine, of this city. The amount for which it sold is the amount of the indebtedness against the property, including back county and State taxes for the years 1912 and 1913, penalties, interest and costs.

"I bought on behalf of the creditors," said Mr. Bodine, after the sale had been made, "and we have no plans except to sell it."

The land was sold to Kate Hawley, Wm. R. Carroll and J. A. Crawford by Thomas J. Mann, April 25, 1910, and one J. A. Brown, supposed to be acting agent, erected a large concrete house with a dance hall, together with numerous other rooms, and installed a waterworks system, and electric light plant. These improvements are said to have cost about $32,000 and finally when money got scarce Brown abandoned the work. It is thought that he had the establishment of an Ohio river Monte Carlo in view.

According to the records here, Kate Hawley and R. I. Hawley, for $1 and other valuable considerations, sold to I. C. Rinehardt and J. A. Crawford an undivided one-third interest in the property.

There were no other bidders beside Mr. Bodine and less than fifteen people were present to see the property sold. The bids were cried by R. L. Johnson, trust officer of the Farmers Bank and Trust Company.

TAKES HER PET DOG TO ITALY FOR ITS HEALTH

Now York February 14.—Because she was told that her Mexican dog, Martha Marr, could not withstand this climate longer, and was in need of a sea voyage, Miss Roberta W. Wyatt, of this city, started yesterday on board the Martha Washington for Italy to remain until the weather moderates here.

Miss Wyatt said that Martha Marr had been ailing for several weeks and she took her to a veterinarian. He pronounced the affliction lung trouble and said the dog must be hustled out of the country at once.

Before she arranged her passage she insisted that the steamship physician, Dr. Carl Donbrevia, be delegated to look after the animal until she arrived abroad.

SHE STANDS LIKE GIBRALTAR'S ROCK

The Old A. S. of E. Yet In The Field.

IS THE FARMER'S BEST FRIEND

Equity Has Not Been Swallowed Up By Any Other Organization.

CRITICAL TIME FOR FARMERS

Calhoun, Ky., Feb. 14, 1914.

Farmers of the Green River District, you have had opportunity of late to read in the neighbor papers letters of various persons offering remedies for the farmer's troubles, and some of these have even resorted to criticism of the American Society of Equity, which they have a perfect right to do, but this we hope will be done in a spirit of fairness and justice. Now we want to say that the A. S. of E. is not a local organization but is Nation-wide, and the tobacco trouble is only one of many and varied matters that the Equity is handling to-day. We want to call the attention of all fair-minded men to some of the objects for which this great organization stands and for which it is contending. One of the main objects we would mention is profitable prices for farm products. While we claim this organization has come on the field and doubled the price of tobacco and that she is still able to stand as the champion of the toiling tobacco grower and her complete overthrow of oppression from capital has only been hindered by division among tobacco growers, yet we want to say her principles are just as sound to-day as ever they were.

Some have suggested that this organization has been swallowed up by the Green River. Now we would not mention what these persons have said, but perhaps others may be able to see no better than they.

The A. S. of E. is just as distinct in its make-up as it ever was and did only this year, in sampling and selling tobacco, what it has always offered to do with any and all tobacco organization. The next best thing to do is to co-operate in selling, and this the A. S. of E. did, and she has carried out her plans in good faith so far as she could. The only reason she has even approached failure is because of the actions of her own people in going over to the opposition, and while in parts of the Green River District her power has been weakened, we want to say that this is no surprise to us, for there never was a great reform that did not have to encounter drawbacks and defeats, and these only serve to give strength to the great armies that are marching on with "Equity" emblazoned on their banners, and are confident that victory will finally crown her efforts, for her cause is just and the confines of her territory in which to operate are not marked by the limits of a small district.

To convince the readers of this paper that Equity has not been swallowed up by any other organization, we mention another of the objects for which we were organized: "To secure legislation in the interest of agriculture." Now if you, dear reader, will just take time to go up to your National Congress and take a look at your law-makers you will learn that you have but few farmers in that honorable body. Then if this be true, how could we but appreciate this great effort on the part of the A. S. of E.?

For the information of some who feel like Equity has been swallowed up we will just state that your National Union A. S. of E. now has a legislative committee thundering at the doors of Congress and making known the wants of the American Farmer. This committee is headed by M. J. Chryst, National President of the A. S. of E., and they will certainly look after the best interest of the farmer.

Now dear reader we must not impose on our good newspapers with an article too lengthy, but have said what we have, only in justice to the American Society of Equity, and we are not going to urge you to stand loyal to Equity, for if she does not merit your support, you are under no obligations to her, but we want to warn every tobacco grower that the history that has been made in the Green River District during the past six months is indicative of complete annihilation of farmers' organizations or co-operation, and the forerunner of lower prices and more oppression.

BLOOD CLOT IN HEART CAUSES SENATOR'S DEATH

Washington, Feb. 14.—Augustus Octavius Bacon, United States Senator from Georgia for nearly 19 years and Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee since the ascendancy of the Democratic party, March 4, 1913, died in a hospital here to-day after an illness of 10 days. He was the first United States Senator elected by direct vote of the people under the seventeenth constitutional amendment.

Though Senator Bacon had been seriously ill with kidney trouble and complications developing from a broken rib, his death was unexpected. It came suddenly at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and news of the end fell upon the Senate as a shock while it was in executive session.

The immediate cause of the Senator's death was diagnosed as a blood clot in the heart. Throughout the morning he had been in good spirits and it was announced to his colleagues that he was feeling better than for several days.

MOTHER CAME IN DREAM AND TOLD HER DAUGHTER

Death Was Near—The Strange
Premonition of Kentucky Woman.

New York, Feb. 14.—"I am going," Zoe Anderson Norris wrote in the little magazine, "East Side," or "Zoe's Magazine," published under date of February 14, "to take the journey to the undiscovered country very, very soon."

The ink was hardly dry upon the parts of the magazine when word came last night from a hospital that Zoe Anderson Norris, the "Queen of Bohemia," was dead; that she had died as she had dreamed and predicted, "very, very soon."

Mrs. Norris was Miss Zoe Anderson. She was born 47 years ago at Harrodsburg, Ky. She was married to S. W. Norris, by whom she had one daughter, Mrs. Fletcher Chelf, who lives at Harrodsburg. Norris died several months ago.

On the East Side, where she lived in a little five-room flat, Zoe Anderson Norris was beloved by many whose names are known in the social and literary registers of the city and by hundreds whose condition in life led them by the narrow little ghetto world.

Mrs. Norris had been a contributor to magazines; she had done active newspaper work, and five years ago she began the publication of the little magazine in which in intimate fashion she told of her approaching death.

In her valedictory she requested that her funeral follow the East Side custom.

It read:

"And I should like a lovely East Side funeral, with the little Dutch band that plays every morning in my court leading it, and the Ragged Edgers following on foot."

Her premonition of the approaching death, Mrs. Norris wrote in her magazine, came to her recently in a dream. As she slept, she said, her mother came to her in her dreams.

GUARD HOUSE ON WALL AT EDDYVILLE BURNED

Eddyville, Ky., Feb. 15.—While nearly every man in town was attending the men's meeting at the Methodist church and women's at the Baptist church it was discovered that one of the guardhouses on the prison wall was a mass of flames. This is the second fire at the prison within the last few days, a fire breaking out last Friday night in the large dining-room that was discovered in the nick of time to prevent a bad conflagration.

The guardhouse burned was the most important on the wall and it overlooks the prison gates. The monetary value, of course, is small. The cause of the fire is supposed to have been neglect of the guard to have properly secured his fire.

NEW ORDER OF POSTAL CHIEF

In Regard To Insufficient Postage.

LETTERS ARE ALLOWED TO GO

If Lacking Stamps, But Receiver Must Pay Twice Amount Due.

TEXT OF NEW POSTAL ORDER

Under an order of Postmaster-General Burleson, just issued, letters, or postal-cards not having affixed sufficient postage will no longer be held up pending the receipt from the addressee of stamps to make up the deficit.

The requirement of the Post-office Department that full postage must be prepaid before mail matter may be dispatched from the receiving office has in many cases resulted in financial loss to the addressee, to say nothing of the inconvenience afforded through the holding up of the letter pending the receipt of stamps to cover the deficiency. For this reason this order will be welcomed, although it provides for the collection of double the amount of the deficit when delivery is made.

However this provision does not add to the cost of having delivered a non-prepaid letter. Under the old system where there were two cents due it was necessary to inclose a two-cent stamp in a stamped envelope, making the total cost four cents, plus the time consumed and delay occasioned. If but one cent is due a saving of one cent may be had by the addressee under the new system, as under the old it cost two cents to forward one cent postage.

It is evident that Postmaster-General Burleson promulgated the order with the intent to do away with the delays to mail matter occasioned by the old order. It may be safely said that fully 90 per cent of nonprepaid letter mail is the result of mistakes on the part of the sender or absentmindedness or failure of the stamps affixed to adhere to the envelope. To prevent abuse of the order Postmaster-General Burleson has provided that where articles are mailed with intent to avoid prepayment, they shall be held up in the old way.

The text of Postmaster-General Burleson's order follows:

"Order No. 7,801—Paragraph 11, Section 511, Postal Laws and Regulations; edition of 1913, is amended to read as follows:

"Letters and post or postal-cards may be dispatched whether or not any postage is prepaid thereon. Other articles shall not be dispatched unless prepaid at least in part, and in all cases of insufficient prepayment, double the amount of the deficiency shall be collected of the addressee. The option of no prepayment or of part payment of postage does not apply, however, to either letters or other articles mailed with the apparent intention of avoiding prepayment.

"A. S. Burleson, Postmaster-General."

WOMAN REPUTED TO BE 103 YEARS OLD IS DEAD

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Feb. 14.—Mrs. Mary Jane Thomas, reported to be 103 years old, died at her home near Kiddville, this county, of the infirmities of old age. She was said to be the oldest white woman in Kentucky. Her son, Rianza Thomas, 73, died a short time ago, and another son is still living near North Middletown, aged 75.

Gives Birth to Five Babies.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 14.—Five children, three boys and two girls, were born to-day to Mrs. Bertha Drury, wife of a Spencer county farmer. The two girls died.

THREATS AGAINST LIFE OF MEMPHIS BANKER

Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 14.—C. Hunter Raine, president of the defunct Mercantile bank which closed its doors Monday as the result of the alleged defalcations of the president, estimated to reach $788,000, entered a plea of not guilty when arraigned in criminal court to-day. Raine previously had pleaded guilty when arrested on a bench warrant charging embezzlement.

Because of the letters threatening the life of Raine, received by the sheriff and the prisoner, unusual precautions were taken to protect the banker when he was brought into court. Only persons who could get seats were permitted in the courtroom.

Following his plea of not guilty, Raine was returned to his cell in the county jail. The bond of $250,000, fixed by Criminal Judge Palmer at the time of his arrest, was permitted to stand, but no move was made by the prisoner to give security. Attorneys Marion G. Evans and T. K. Riddick, two of the leading lawyers of the city, have been retained by Mr. Raine.

The audit of the bank's books, which is necessary to show the present condition of the resources, it is stated, will not be completed for several days.

The grand jury which is investigating the wrecking of the bank will resume its work Monday. Attorney General Z. N. Estes, in a statement to-day, declared that on the report of the State Superintendent of Banks hinged additional prosecution.

"Bank Superintendent Hutton will report to me, as he is required to do under the law. Unless I get data from the examiner I cannot take action. Suits should be brought to recover losses in the failure. I shall advise him to that effect," said Mr. Estes.

FIERCE RIOT AT CHURCH AND 100 WERE INJURED

Attempt Of Priest To Take Charge
Was Successfully Repulsed.

South Bend, Ind., Feb. 15.—Seven persons were seriously injured and nearly a hundred others hurt here to-day in a riot following an attempt of twenty-five policemen to aid Sheriff Edward Swanson in carrying out the order of Judge W. A. Funk, of the Circuit Court, that the Rev. Stanislaus Gruza be placed in charge of St. Casimir's Polish Roman Catholic church. The mob was composed of about 2,000 men and women. After fighting two hours they were successful in blocking the effort of Father Gruza to take possession of the church.

Father Gruza was transferred to the parish a year ago, but the parishioners refused to accept him. The members of the 600 families in the parish then took charge of the church, barred the doors and windows and petitioned the bishop of the district to assign them another priest. This was refused and the matter taken into the Circuit Court, where Judge Funk ordered the Sheriff to place Father Gruza in charge of the church.

Early to-day the Sheriff, a deputy and the priest drove to the church, but were immediately surrounded. The police were called upon for aid.

Twenty-five officers were sent to the church and the doors broken open. The angry parishioners then charged the officers. A battle was fought in the street.

The fire department was called to aid the police, but were unable to help, as the members of the mob surrounded the wagon and threatened to cut the hose.

Father Gruza watched the fight from a house two blocks away.

WILL DRILL FOR GAS IN WESTERN KENTUCKY

Evansville, Ind., Feb. 14.—That he expects to find enough natural gas in Western Kentucky to supply Evansville, Henderson, Owensboro, Seebree and other Kentucky towns, was the statement made here Thursday by W. H. Taylor, of Huntington, W. Va., representing Ohio operators. Mr. Taylor says wells will be drilled at once in Webster, McLean and Daviess counties in Kentucky.

A. S. of E. Notice.

On account of the very bad weather and roads, the meeting of the Ohio County Union A. S. of E. was deferred to Saturday, February 21, 1914, at 10 o'clock a. m. All poultry and wool poolers are expected to attend, whether members or not. State Secretary S. B. Robertson will be expected to address the people at 1 o'clock p. m.

WARNED OF PERIL, THE JAPS WAITED

Too Long For Safety and

BY AWFUL VOLCANIC DELUGE

Horrors At Sakurajima During Terrific Eruption
Of Mitake.

MADDENING RUSH TO ESCAPE

San Francisco, Feb. 14.—The first detailed account of the eruption of Mitake, on the island of Sakurajima, off the southern coast of Japan, was received here to-day by mail from a Tokio correspondent. The account says:

"While a Tokio audience was assembled at the Imperial Theater, viewing moving pictures of 'The Last Days of Pompeii,' the subterranean fires of their own empire, imprisoned for more than a century, were surging upward beneath the Isle of Sakurajima, in the southernmost part of the realm. Soon began an eruption so fierce and terrible as to take place at once with the historic demonstrations of Vesuvius.

"The 22,000 inhabitants of Sakurajima fled wildly in all directions in a pitiful quest for shelter. From thickly settled villages and from houses embosomed in groves of oranges, peaches and plums, the farmers ran to the shores of the bay.

"Horses neighed and snorted in terror. Many freed themselves and began a wild stampede over their human companions.

"Many old men refused to try to save themselves and had literally to be dragged along by the younger. Women and children were sent off first, the women carrying their infants slung Japanese fashion across their backs, their hands filled with portable household goods. It was a wild, pell-mell rush—a flight of indescribable panic.

"For all that the catastrophe was so overwhelming in its descent, there had been preliminary warnings. Two months before, a traveler on the summit of the long mountain ridge of Yoshinogahara was surprised to see smoke drifting from new gullies in the sides of the open peak of Mitake on Sakurajima.

"The next warning came on Jan. 11 in the form of severe earthquakes, accompanied by cannonading from the heights of Sakurajima. With increasing violence came shock after shock. Houses toppled, walls crumbled and from far beneath rose a horrible sound of grinding and roaring, up through the quaking crust of the earth.

"By Monday morning the glow that had spread like a scarlet canopy over the vent of the volcano changed to a lofty column of twisting smoke, laced with flames and shot with the trail of fiery missiles.

"Dawn changed to twilight. A great shower of ashes rained on the panic-stricken population. The ashes became glowing cinders and the cinders flaming rocks. Sparkling lava, gushing from the mouths of the several craters, leaped down from cliff to cliff and ledge to ledge.

"Volcanoes long supposed extinct in other portions of the realm sprang into sympathetic action and ashes fell like snow. Distant Tokio itself was mantled in a sinister, yellow cloud, carrying terror to the populace.

"By this time the cascades of lava and ceaseless rain of meteors had set fire to the sugar cane and bamboo forests. Houses burst into flame.

"Arrived at the shore, the villagers flung themselves into sampans moored on the beach, or plunged into the gulf. The mountain was now a roaring furnace and the heat was unbearable. From Kagoshima a dozen steamers came to the rescue. Their prompt aid and that of sailing and rowing craft saved thousands from drowning.

"As soon as the authorities at Tokio had an inkling of the serious nature of the disaster, several warships were dispatched to the gulf.

They found the waters furiously agitated and thickly crusted with pumice-stone. An official estimate of damage done gives 50,000 destitute, twelve bridges destroyed, thousands of stone fences strewn about and more than 12,000 houses demolished. Sakurajima is a waste of pumice and lava, naked and desolate."

KENTUCKIAN GETS A CORPSE FOR PRESENT

Mayfield, Ky., Feb. 12.—When John Singleton, living near the Graves and Calloway county line, went to Murray after a box shipped to him from Roswell, New Mexico, he found on opening it a dead man. The corpse has never been identified and was well dressed and embalmed. Mr. Singleton says he has no relatives or acquaintances in any distant country and cannot account for such a present being sent to him. The name of the sender is not known and the only mark on the box was: "A present to John Singleton, Murray, Ky."

Mr. Singleton was shocked. He turned the body over to the county officials, and it was buried in the Murray cemetery, without ceremony. It could not be learned at the depot who sent the box and body.

THE MODERN METHOD OF MEASURING HAY

Measuring hay in the stack is a common method of selling hay, but the methods and rules used are varied, says the Colorado agricultural college. Very little experimental data has been obtained upon the accuracy of the different methods. The United States department of farm management has made some experiments, and uses the following method to find the cubic contents of the stack: Measure the length of the stack, then the width, then with a tape measure over the stack from the ground on one side to the ground on the other side. This distance is called the "over". Multiply the width by the "over" and this by .31. This will give the area of the cross section. Multiply this by the length and get total cubic feet contents. The factor .31 is variable, according to the height, width and fullness of the stack, and may be as low as .24 in low stacks or as much as .38 in high stacks. The number of cubic feet to allow for one ton varies with the kind of hay and the length of time it has stood in the stack, and is usually determined according to local custom.

A Winter Cough.

A stubborn, annoying, depressing cough hangs on, racks the body, weakens the lungs, and often leads to serious results. The first dose of Dr. King's New Discovery gives relief. Henry D. Sanders, of Cavendish, Vt., was threatened with consumption, after having pneumonia. He writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery ought to be in every family; it is certainly the best of all medicines for coughs, colds or lung trouble." Good for children's coughs. Money back if not satisfied. Price 50c and $1.00. At all druggists. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis. (Advertisement.)

OLDEST COUNTERFEITER AGAIN BEHIND THE BARS

Philadelphia, Feb. 14.—Samuel Tate, 86 years old, said to be the oldest convicted counterfeiter in the United States, is again behind the bars charged with counterfeiting silver coin. Along with him is Geo. Reilly, 70 years old, who is held on a similar charge. Tate has served 39 years of his life in the penitentiary for burglary, counterfeiting and other offenses, and Reilly has spent 15 years in prison for burglary, larceny and horse stealing.

Some months ago Tate was released from the penitentiary, after serving his seventh sentence for counterfeiting. He and Reilly are charged with making half dollars here.

"I guess I am done for now," said Tate when he was placed in a cell.

ROYAL VISIT BY AFRICAN KINGS

Was Paid To Christian Missionaries.

WAS A WONDERFUL OCCASION

"State Umbrellas" Of Large and Brilliant Design In Procession.

WERE GRATIFIED WITH VISIT

S. G. Pinnock, Abeokuta, Africa, writes:

"The king's scribe, mounted on a wheel, came to say that his august master would pay a visit to your missionaries at Abeokuta at 5 p. m. I have received messengers from African royal personages quite a few different times before now, and should not be greatly surprised at anything if the message demanded forthwith the preacher's head on a charger, for you know that this happened on one occasion to a greater preacher than any living to-day.

"Soon after the appointed hour we could hear in the distance the sound of drums, and knew the royal party was drawing near. There is a long path leading up to the house in which we are now living, and we had a full view of the procession as it approached. Three state umbrellas, large and brilliant in design, the distinguishing feature of African royalty, preceded the retinue. Half a dozen drummers, the one and only musical (?) instrument of the country, beating with all their might upon drums of several different tones and sizes, followed on. Then a king on horseback, followed by the alake, king of the United Egbu kingdom, who was carried by four hammock-bearers, in a sumptuously decorated chair. Two police orderlies flanked the procession, five queens kept near to their husband, and twenty or thirty retainers brought up the rear. We met his majesty at the door and invited him and his companion, the king of Osheba, to walk upstairs to the sitting room.

"My wife received them at the head of the stairs. In a few minutes, introductions over, we were all comfortably seated, the two kings, myself and the scribe on one side, and my wife and the five queens on the other side of the room. The alake, having been to England, where he was received by the late king, Edward VII., is quite accustomed to European etiquette, and this knowledge, added to his native courtesy, made him a very gentlemanly visitor.

"He is the ruler of quite a large independent kingdom, and this city is the most progressive native state in the whole of Africa. He attends the Anglican church regularly, and in conversation said that he was coming to a public meeting on Monday next, at which I shall be speaking. On one occasion he asked a number of questions about baptism, and expressed the desire to see a service of this kind.

"His companion, the asiele, a king by title, has received a grammar school education, and speaks excellent English. He, too, is a regular attendant at church. Perhaps I may explain here that there are really four kings in Abeokuta, and many minor chiefs, the city having been formed by the amalgamation of the chiefs from towns which in former years were destroyed by the Dahomians.

"Both these kings were keenly interested in all religious and educational work, and any extension of our work along educational lines especially will receive all the help that they can give. We were glad to know that they were pleased with the reception we gave them. After light refreshments they took their leave. We regard their visit as the official recognition of our work and a welcome to their city."

Big Tobacco Crop.

Planter William Wilson, residing in the Bell's Chapel neighborhood, a few miles from Trenton, is now delivering in Clarksville the bumper crop of tobacco of the season. Mr. Wilson on about 100 acres grew 85,000 pounds of tobacco, which he sold at an average of $9.50 per hundred. This is in all probability, considering large acreage, the finest yield in the county. On a smaller acreage Planter John B. Garth, near the city, made a tip-top yield; in fact, one that makes growers sit up and take notice. Mr. Garth produced 19,570 pounds on fifteen acres, while "old Joe," a colored hand on Mr. Garth's farm, raised 7,750 pounds on five acres, an average of 1,550 pounds an acre.—(Trenton Progress.)

WHISTLERS MET DEATH WITH FITTING TUNES

Butyrus, O., Feb. 12.—Whistling "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder, I'll Be There," David S. Shumaker, 70 years old, started out to feed the stock on his farm south of here last night. Later his wife went to a barn and found him dead of heart disease. He was born in Herrickville, Penn. He leaves a widow and two children.

Marion, O., Feb. 12.—W. B. Leffer, 43 years old, farmer, was found hanging from a rafter in a barn at the Richard D. Cleveland home at Agosta. He had been dead several hours. Leffer last was seen Saturday night, when he was whistling "Every Day Will Be Sunday, By and By." Brooding over the death of a brother is believed to have affected his mind. Leffer was a bachelor.

POLICE TRICKED AGAIN BY MRS. PANKHURST

London, Feb. 12.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, who yesterday returned to London from Switzerland, beguiled the police to-night into a false arrest. She addressed a crowd from the window of her temporary residence in Camden Hill square. She accused the Government of cowardice, and announced that she was coming into the street, and challenged the police to arrest her. A woman emerged from the house and was arrested, with seven others. The police discovered they had been tricked.

Miss Sylvia Pankhurst, at a public meeting to-night, declared that the people's army would soon be drilling in the open streets, like Sir Edward Carson's Ulster army.

For the first time in recent years the suffragettes were conspicuous by their absence to-day from all the processions connected with the opening of Parliament. A siege of the Bishop of London's residence was abandoned late in the afternoon. An attempt was made this morning to prevent his attending the opening of Parliament.

One can never tell what a day will bring forth—or a night either.

TWO HOME WOMEN TALKED ABOUT HAIR

Two women met in our store the other day, when one of them said: "My, how pretty your hair looks! What have you been doing to it?"

"Why, I have been using Harmony Hair Beautifier for the past two weeks," was the reply.

"Why, indeed!" replied the first woman, "that is just what I am using. Isn't it great, and don't you think my hair shows a lot of improvement?"

Harmony Hair Beautifier is becoming all the rage among both men and women who are particular in the care of their hair. It is just what it is named—a hair beautifier. It seems to polish and burnish the hair, making it glossy, silky-soft, and more easy to put up in graceful, wavy folds that "stay put."

Contains no oil, and will not change color of hair nor darken it. Simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it.

To keep your hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich, foaming lather that immediately penetrates to every part of the hair and scalp, insuring a quick and thorough cleansing. It is washed off just as quickly, the entire operation taking only a few moments. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by us.—James H. Williams, 214 Main St., Hartford, Ky.—(Advertisement.)

A Carelessly Treated Cold

is the source of most sickness because drugged pills, syrups and alcoholic mixtures are uncertain and unsafe.

Scott's Emulsion has been relied upon by physicians for forty years as the safe and sensible remedy to suppress the cold and build up the enfeebled forces to avert throat and lung troubles. Don't tolerate alcoholic substitutes, but insist on the Genuine Scott's Emulsion. One bottle usually lasts longer than a cold. Every druggist has it. 13 78

"Worth More Than it Costs"

Lots of farmers declare their telephone service is worth more than it costs. J. W. Harris, a well-known farmer living near Choccolocco, Ala., writes:

"I had occasion to call our doctor not two hours after my telephone was connected with your exchange. My mother, who is very old, fell down the door steps and broke her arm, and I called the doctor. He was at my house before I could have gone to his residence, as he has an automobile.

"We would not be without our telephone for more than it costs and appreciate the assistance you rendered us."

Our free booklet tells how you may have telephone service on your farm at small cost. Write for it today. A postal will do.

THREATEN CIVIL WAR IN IRELAND

Unless Ulster Is Barred By Home Rule Law.

GOVERNMENT WILL NOT GIVE

Its Consent, Asquith Points Out—King George Opens Parliament.

THE SCENE A BRILLIANT ONE

London, Feb. 11.—King George, with the customary state ceremonial, to-day opened the momentous and historic session of Parliament, which, according to all reasonable probability, will see the victorious conclusion of the 30 years' struggle of the Liberal party to give self-government to Ireland. The home rule bill, which is now to be presented in the House of Commons for the third time, will, if carried, receive the royal assent with or without the consent of the House of Lords.

Whether the bill will pass as it stands or whether it will be amended to meet the susceptibilities of Ulster will depend on the nature of the concessions, which the Prime Minister announced he would make in behalf of the Government at the proper time.

The King's speech, in a grave passage, expressed the earnest desire of His Majesty to attain a settlement by consent, and this desire was fervently echoed by Premier Asquith in the House of Commons and Viscount Morley in the House of Lords in their opening speeches.

The scene in the Lords was brilliant in the extreme, and in the Commons decorous. The appearance of the assembly gave no indication of the passions surging in the opposing sides or that the short session, so quietly commenced, might lead to events little short of Civil War. Queen Mary was present. Both the King and Queen wore their crowns and royal robes.

Despite the conciliatory tone of both Premier Asquith and Lord Morley small hope was felt in the lobbies of Parliament to-night that the settlement of the home rule question would be reached by consent.

The Minister's attitude clearly shows that the Government will neither consent to an appeal to the country nor accept a solution based on the exclusion of Ulster from the operation of the bill. Rt. Hon. Austen Chamberlain just as clearly indicated that the opposition will accept nothing less than the exclusion of Ulster unless the Government agrees to an appeal to the country. He declared in his speech in the House of Commons that the exclusion of Ulster was the only possible basis for a settlement by agreement, and that it would be useless for the Government to offer less. Civil War was certain if Ulster was not excluded.

It is evident, however, that the crisis which has been threatening has been postponed for several weeks.

Premier Asquith declines to divulge the proposed concessions at the present stage, on the ground that the opposition would only use that knowledge as a lever to secure still greater concessions.

Referring to the recent conference on safety of life at sea, King George from the throne said: "It gives me great gratification that the international conference on safety of life at sea, which recently met in London at the invitation of my Govern-

COD LIVER OIL AND IRON

Two Most World-Famed Tonics Combined in Vinol.

Cod Liver oil and Iron have proved to be the two most successful tonics the world has ever known—iron for the blood and the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil as a strength and tissue builder for body and nerves, and for the successful treatment of throat and lung troubles.

Two eminent French chemists discovered a method of separating the active medicinal elements of the livers from the oil or grease which is thrown away, but to these medicinal elements tonic iron is now added, thus combining in Vinol the two most world famed tonics.

As a body-builder and strength creator for weak, run-down people, for feeble old people, delicate children, to restore strength after sickness; and for chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis or pulmonary troubles we ask you to try Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

To His Eminent High Mightiness, Hon. Woodrow Wilson, Dispenser of Jobs:

1. The undersigned, Hannibal Hardup, of Hungaryville, hereby makes application for some position in the income tax collection service. My qualifications are as follows:

2. I have no income, and need none.

3. I am an expert at prying into my neighbor's affairs.

4. I possess the shiftless person's hatred of the provident and a bondholder is to me anathema; also a stockholder.

5. I am prepared to make it as difficult as possible for every one with an income to draw it.

6. I am confident that I shall manage to collect enough income tax to equal my salary.

7. My character, energy and high ideals are enthusiastically vouched for by the undersigned indorsers, who have known me for years, and have proved their faith in me by allowing me to run up bills in their stores, which I shall be able to pay if I get this job.

GROWING GINSENG IS NOW LESS PROFITABLE

Some years ago there was something approaching a ginseng craze in some sections of the country, and the idea is still so rampant that the United States Department of Agriculture issued a bulletin on the subject which gives some valuable advice. Plunging into ginseng, the bulletin says, is as likely to prove disastrous as in other forms of enterprise. The suggestion is offered that culture of any special crop is best begun in an inexpensive and experimental manner, "enlarging the equipment only as reasonable success seems assured." As a commercial product the agricultural department regards ginseng as particularly liable to over-production. The belief is expressed that it holds little inducement for inexperienced growers looking into quick profits from a small investment, as ginseng is a slow grower and its cultivation involves a large amount of labor and patience.

Progress of The Genius. Yesterday we praised the genius as one who made two blades of grass grow where only one grew before. Today we place upon his brow the laurel wreath, and hail him as the man who can make one motion do the work of two. Truly, all roads do lead to Rome, and things that are equal to the same thing are equal to each other.—[The Levitation.]

WHOLE SHIPLOAD NEGROES WAITING

To Be Taken To "Promised Land."

BLACKS PROMISED A UTOPIA

In Africa—Alfred C. Sam Got Rich By Immigration Scheme.

ASSESSMENT, $25.00 PER HEAD

New York, Feb. 12.—A shipload of negroes, mostly farmers and their wives from Oklahoma, waited here for Alfred C. Sam to lead them to a new negro Utopia on the gold coast of Africa. The colored farmers were induced to come here, they said, by Sam, who had been collecting colonizers from Oklahoma, Texas and Mississippi. More negroes were expected from Galveston and the West, and it was said that eighty-six were coming from Boston.

The steamer in which the negroes expected to seek the gold coast was the old Curityba, of the Munson Line, which formerly plied between New York and Cuba. An officer of the Munson Line said to-day that the Curityba was sold a short time ago to the Akim Trading Company, of this city, in which Sam is supposed to be interested.

Sam, according to the colonists, represents himself to be an African chief. Reports of his activities have come from time to time from the black belt of the South and Southwest, and in New York negroes were greatly stirred up to-day by conflicting reports regarding his project. Sam could not be found here to-day.

The negroes on board were in the best of spirits and talked in glowing terms of a sovereign land where they would have their own government and their own religion.

In the absence of Sam, who they said was in Boston looking for recruits, the party is under the leadership of A. Davis, an old negro Baptist clergyman. Davis told them that they are to form a new church in the promised land to be called the "Church of God." Religious zeal seemed to sway the party as much as their desire to better their worldly circumstances.

"Chief Sam" Cleans Up.

Weleeka, Okla., Feb. 12.—Between five hundred and seven hundred negroes from various parts of Oklahoma are gathered here, the headquarters of "Chief Sam's" African colony. News that Sam could not be found in New York created consternation among the colonists. Last week they were told to report at Galveston, Texas, on February 15 and prepare to sail for the Gold Coast five days later. They were advised yesterday to postpone their plans, as the ship would not reach Galveston for three weeks.

Chief Sam has been at work in Oklahoma several months organizing the colony. When he left for New York with eighteen other negroes a week ago yesterday it is reported that he carried with him between $65,000 and $75,000 subscribed by his followers to finance the project.

The negroes have been charged $25 each to be taken to Africa. They are to pay their railroad fare to Galveston.

Sam claims to be chief of the Ashantee tribe of African natives. His scheme has been repeatedly denounced as a fraud.

Impractical.

Secretary Garrison, listening in Washington to the visionary hopes of an advocate of universal peace, said:

"Such desires are as impractical as Willie's. His aunt said to him one morning:

"Willie, an angel brought your mamma such a nice little brother for you last night. Wouldn't you like to see the dear little baby?"

"No," Willie replied, "but I'd like to see the angel."

ADVERTISING GIVES AN AIR OF PROSPERITY

One of the reasons why advertising has grown so enormously of recent years is that merchants realize that a business, to succeed, must carry an atmosphere of prosperity.

The man who enters a business office with soiled clothes, and face unshorn, and muddy boots, is not

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Ask Your Doctor. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

apt to get a job. This may be due to superficial judgments, but people have to make the best use they can of exterior indications.

Similarly the public judges of a merchant's success by exterior signs. A business man who does not advertise conveys an impression of passiveness and indifference, of slow-going, old-fashioned methods.

The public values enterprise in retail trade higher than almost any other one quality. Liberal advertising is to a merchant what good clothes and a clean-cut appearance are to a salesman. It suggests that a merchant is prosperous, that he has in the past succeeded in pleasing the public, that he is alert enough to get good bargains for his customers. It shows that he has such confidence in his goods that he is willing to spend money to tell people about them.

CROP OF 20,000 POUNDS BRINGS $20.46 AVERAGE

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 12.—Receipts were light on the Lexington tobacco market to-day, and the blockade which has been in effect since the first week in January was lifted.

The sale was completed to-day of one of the best big crops which was grown last summer. It was raised by Heatt & McCray on sixteen acres of land in this county, and consisted of 20,040 pounds, which, including green tips and damaged leaves, brought an all-around average of $20.46 the hundred. The highest basket of cigarette wrapper from this crop sold for 43 cents a pound, the season's record price, and 2,785 pounds brought an average of 39 cents. The part of this crop sold to-day amounted to 7,165 pounds, at an average price of $21.14 a pound.

A total of 630,535 pounds of tobacco was sold to-day, the average price being $12.13 the hundred. The quality of the offerings was about the same as on previous days this week, and there was no appreciable change in prices.

Heated discussions don't always make warm friends.

GIVE THAT PUNY CHILD

THIS GUARANTEED REMEDY

If your child is under-weight, listless, ailing, liable to get sick easily, it needs a medicine to build up its weight and strength. For this purpose there is nothing else we know of that we can so strongly endorse as Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion. The remarkable success of this splendid medicine is due to the fact that it contains ingredients that tone the nerves, enrich the blood and furnish to the entire system the strength, weight and health-building substances it needs. And, it does all this without injuring the stomach. In fact, Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion is not only pleasant to take, but even the most sensitive stomach is benefited by it, and the digestion is improved. On the other hand, it contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs, which most parents object to giving their children. It does its good work by taking hold of the weakness and builds the body up to its natural strength, at the same time making it strong to resist disease.

If Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion doesn't build your child up, feed the stunted, puny muscles, and make the little one lively, strong, well, and full of animal spirits children are meant by nature to have, come back and tell us and get your money back. We don't want you to lose a cent. We think this is no more than fair, and it leaves you no cause to hesitate. For old people also—for convalescents—for all who are nervous, tired-out, run-down, no matter what the cause—we offer Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion with the same guarantee of entire satisfaction or money back. Sold only at the 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by us. $1.00.—James H. Williams, 214 Main St., Hartford, Ky. (Advertisement.)

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging

Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave

Up in Despair. Husband

Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

Entered at the Hartford post-office as mail matter of the second class.

Nowadays people who marry may expect to take their matrimonial medicine "according to directions" or be awful sick—of the contract.

It is said that one sure way of getting rid of wrinkles is to get a divorce. Anyhow this method seems to be employed by more women than men.

After an anxious consultation by the heads of the Postoffice Department it was finally decided that babies are not mailable by parcel post. Of course not. The stork attends to that.

Under the new system that a letter lacking sufficient postage may be carried through and the addressee pay double the amount due. It will probably, in some cases, just change the cussing point from one end of the route to the other.

Scientists are telling us that now is the time to swat the fly. We believe it. In fact we were thoroughly convinced of it a few days ago when two of the left-over winter colony got to dancing the tango on the equatorial plane between our ears.

At a Lincoln anniversary dinner in Peoria, Ill., last week former Speaker Joseph G. Cannon lit in on President Wilson and just gave him jeering fits and Hall Columbia all combined. The worst thing old man Joe brought against Woodrow was that the latter is a smasher of precedents. Nobody denied this and at last account Mr. Wilson was still able to sit up and take nourishment.

The Kentucky State Farmers' Institute assemblies at Frankfort next week—February 24, 25, 26. Not only the delegates elected by the County Farmers' Institute, but all farmers are welcome to attend these meetings. A strong program has been arranged of special interest to farmers, and it would be very beneficial for them to attend. Incidentally they might enjoy looking in on the General Assembly in session.

Every now and then some man or set of men feels called upon to "go after" the L. & N. railroad and try to put it out of business, as it were. They usually attempt persecution instead of prosecution and seem slow in thinking that the L. & N. also has its rights. The L. & N. is no doubt a rich corporation, but it has done more for the upbuilding of the South—especially Kentucky—than any one agency we know of.

The modern idea of liberality in religious views was typified at Bowling Green last week when converts of a Methodist meeting were immersed in the baptistry of the Christian church, the pastor of the latter performing the act and the Methodist minister using the verbal ceremony. Nothing wrong about that. If a person's heart and conversion are all right, would the manner of his baptism keep him from getting to heaven?

All possible encouragement should be given to the business and professional men of Hartford and elsewhere who have subscribed so liberally to a fund for county road improvement. It is in no selfish spirit that this money is given, but for the good of all. The spirit of enterprise back of it should inspire every farmer in the county to enlist in the effort for better roads. Loyalty to home county and personal interests could not be shown in any better way. It vitally affects every farmer's welfare.

Commenting on the report that the Department of Commerce will prescribe a rule for navigation in American waters that during a heavy fog vessels should come almost to a dead stop when the lookout on the bridge cannot distinguish objects one-eighth of a mile away, the Louisville Times says: "We venture to say that so long as vessels keep a furlong apart, there will be no collision." Certainly it will act upon the same principle that if you don't whittle towards yourself, you won't cut yourself.

Christian county has the youngest Sheriff and County Attorney in the State. Their names are Jewell W. Smith and Ira D. Smith, but they are no kin. The law requires that a man shall be 24 years old before he can serve in either of these offices. Sheriff Smith beat this time ten months and County Attorney Smith five months. However, they have both had several years experience in their respective offices, the Sheriff having been a deputy under his father and the County Attorney having been a practicing lawyer for four years. Both Smiths are Democrats.

Observing the proceedings of the Kentucky Legislature, some people seem surprised that the Senate, a few days ago, by a vote of two to one, passed a new county local option bill which provides that by petition of one-fourth of the voters of a county, a local option election shall be called. Their surprise will probably be augmented if the House endorses the same bill—which is quite logically expected. The county unit sentiment becomes more apparent as the days go by. The time is not far distant when the saloon will be swept from every section of the State by a tidal wave akin to a besom of destruction.

FORMER WIFE OF GEN. CASSIUS CLAY IS DEAD

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 14.—Mrs. Dora Brock Hunt, who had been married five times, her first husband having been the late Gen. Cassius M. Clay, of White Hall, Madison county, died on Wednesday of tuberculosis at Wallace Station, in Woodford county. Mrs. Hunt was 35 years old, and her husband, Ben Hunt, is employed by the phosphate company at Wallace Station. Until recently they lived at Versailles. She also left one son, called Brock Clay. Mrs. Hunt gained widespread notoriety a number of years ago as the "child-bride" of the grizzled old warrior of White Hall. She was then about 16 years old, the daughter of a poor tenant upon Gen. Clay's big farm, while the bridegroom, who had been a commanding figure in Kentucky before and during the Civil War, and had been United States Minister to Russia, and had a large estate, was about 80.

The so-called mesalliance caused widespread comment and a breach between Gen. Clay and his children and other kindred, who were among aristocrats of Central Kentucky. He finally became so angered by the criticisms that he fortified his home and mounted a small cannon for its defense. Alone with himself and youthful bride, he kept steady watch with loaded rifles for all intruders, and for weeks kept the officers of the law, who had been called upon, and all other visitors at bay. After several weeks of this sort Gen. Clay and the girl seemed to become mutually tired of each other, and she left him, apparently with his consent, and was soon married again to a young farmhand of the vicinity. Gen. Clay is said to have given them his blessing, as well as presenting the new bride with a liberal dowry.

THE HOBSON-UNDERWOOD BATTLE ENDS APRIL 6

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 16.—The seven months' fight between Oscar Underwood, majority leader of the National House of Representatives, and Congressman Richmond Pearson Hobson, for the Alabama vacancy in the United States Senate, is drawing to a close. The deciding votes in a campaign that has attracted nation-wide interest will be cast at the Democratic primaries April 6. The actual election will not take place until November 4, but that will be merely a ratification of the choice at the primary polls.

Mr. Underwood has announced that so far as personal participation was concerned, his campaign for the seat already has ended. Representative Hobson, on the other hand, is carrying forward the personal campaign he has been waging for many months, during which time he has spoken in nearly every county and town in the State.

The political adherents of the two distinguished candidates are daily making counter-claims of victory. Careful observers, however, are inclined to await the casting of the ballots before attempting to name the successful aspirant.

THREE THOUSAND ATTEND WHITE HOUSE RECEPTION

Washington, Feb. 10.—Nearly 3,000 guests called at the White House to-night to attend the Congressional reception, the third of the winter social functions given by the President and Mrs. Wilson. Members of the Cabinet and their wives assisted in receiving.

Every Day Is Groundhog Day.

Arch Acra, who resides down on Middle Creek, is an enthusiastic good roads man and talks turnpike in his sleep when not dreaming of the army of groundhogs that burrow in his land. He says in the last two years 137 of the little creatures have been captured on his farm. (Burlington Recorder.)

SEDUCTOR WAS TRAPPED BY ANONYMOUS LETTER

Alleged Is Father Of Babe Born To a Ten-Year-Old Mother.

The Bowling Green Messenger says:

After a lapse of nearly a year, during which nothing had been heard of him and no trace of his whereabouts could be found, T. J. Bennett, the alleged betrayer of Callie Still, the ten-year-old daughter of John Still, of this county, has at last been found.

Sheriff John Ray on Tuesday received a letter from some unknown person in Springfield, Mo., in which the writer stated that Bennett was in that city, and the street address of Bennett was given in full in the letter. Sheriff Ray telephoned the Chief of Police of Springfield shortly afterward, asking him to detain Bennett until requisition papers could be prepared. A telephone message was received from the Chief of Police within a short time, saying that Bennett had been arrested at a hospital in that city and that he was holding him until further orders.

Sheriff Ray is now having the necessary papers prepared and as soon as matters can be arranged, he will leave for Springfield to bring his man back.

It will be remembered that Callie Still is the ten-year-old girl who gave birth to a child at St. Joseph's Hospital during last summer. The case was the most remarkable one of the kind on record in Warren county, and the girl is the youngest mother of which the physicians of the county have any knowledge. The age of the girl is vouched for by the physician who attended her mother at her birth.

The girl alleges that Bennett was her betrayer, and further suspicion has been directed towards him by the fact of his fleeing the county shortly before the birth occurred. No trace of him had been found until Sheriff Ray received the anonymous letter this morning.

Bennett is fifty-eight years of age, is a cousin of the girl's mother and had always been considered one of the family's best friends.

Sheriff Ray expects to leave probably on Friday for Springfield after Bennett, and it is likely that he may be incarcerated in the local jail within the week.

BOND SALE.

Notice is hereby given that the Ohio County Board of Drainage Commissioners will offer for sale at the court house door in Hartford, Ky., on Monday, February 23, 1914, at 1 p. m., bonds to the amount of six thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine dollars and eighty-one cents ($6,989.81), at public outcry to the highest and best bidder for cash. TURNER BURNS AND MRS. GRACE SMALL MARRIED

The Owensboro Inquirer of Sunday says:

A wedding that has been expected for some time occurred shortly after 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, when Mr. Samuel Turner Burns and Mrs. Grace Small were united in marriage at the "parsonage" of the First Presbyterian church by Rev. J. A. Gallaher. The ceremony was performed in the presence of Messrs. Robert E. Massie, Louis I. Igleheart, Mrs. Ivy Read and Mrs. C.D. Brown. Mr. and Mrs. Burns left on the 3:45 "Texas" train for Cincinnati and other points, and upon their return will reside at the home of Mr. Burns on South Frederica street.

Mr. Burns is one of the best known tobaccoists of the city. He is a successful business man, being connected with a number of enterprises in Owensboro. Mr. Burns is well liked and has a great many friends. Mrs. Burns was the widow of Mayor W. P. Small. She was reared in the western end of the county, and is an unusually attractive woman.

THE VERY PLACE WHERE ARE LINCOLN WAS BORN

One hundred and five years ago the great Emancipator first saw the light of day in the little cabin on the Little Beech Fork, in this county, and this is no pipe dream, for we have the testimony of the late Mr. William Hardesty, one of the pioneer citizens of this county, who was present at the wedding of Nancy Hanks to Thomas Lincoln, and who remembered when Mr. Lincoln was born and also remembered him a barefoot boy before the family moved to Hardin county. Perhaps some of our young people will not be inclined to believe that "Honest Abe" was born here, because they have seen it in print in their histories that he was born in what is now Laue county, but we would impress them with the fact that histories were written by mere men, who were subject to error as well as all men are in the present day, and that they only wrote from what they had heard.—[Springfield News-Leader.]

CONFEDERATE VETERANS REMEMBERED BY STATE

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 14.—Besides $40,985.67 in checks paid to 1,338 Confederate pensioners as the quarterly payment of their State pensions, the State treasury distributed to-day interest-bearing warrants for $79,204.42 to pensioners, whose February payments exceed the amount for which checks are issued. Many of these drew for the first time, and their claims include $10 per month from the time they filed their applications, some of them in July, 1912. The total distribution amounted to $120,190.09. The number of pensioners now on the rolls is 2,019.

GOOD PRICES REALIZED AT SHELBY MULE SALES

Shelbyville, Ky., Feb. 14.—E. H. Wise made his sixth annual sale of broke mules to-day on his farm near Southville. Twenty head, 15.2 to 16.1 hands high, from 3 to 5 years old, sold at prices ranging from $402.50 to $505 per pair; twenty-two smaller mules, from 3 to 5 years old, sold from $355 to $437.50 per pair; four coming 2 years old, from $315 to $337.50; one pair, extra good, coming 2 years old, $415; one pair show mules, coming 2 years old, $490. The latter were purchased by Paul Allen, of Finchville. Lawson Bros., of Clayville, were the heaviest buyers, taking eighteen head. The attendance was not as large as usual at these sales on account of bad weather, but prices were satisfactory.

EX-BANDIT JENNINGS GIVES OUT PLATFORM

Oklahoma City, Ok., Feb. 16.—Al J. Jennings, a former bandit, but now a candidate for Governor of Oklahoma, to-day gave out his platform. It contains only sixty words.

"My platform," said Jennings, "is fidelity to the people, real honesty in office and that the law shall be no respecter of persons. When these principles are truly and honestly carried into effect, all interests will be subserved and taxes will be reduced. In all my life I never have betrayed a confidence. If the people confide in me, God being my judge, I'll not betray them."

SEEMS TO BE TRYING TO TEAR DOWN A. S. OF E. And Bring It Into Disrepute, In Attacks On The Organization.

Calhoun, Ky., Feb. 14, 1914.

We notice in the Owensboro Inquirer of February 13, a letter addressed to the A. S. of E. and to poolers in general, and signed by Mr. S. L. McAdams, in which he tries to bring the plans of the A. S. of E. into disrepute, and attempts to persuade the tobacco growers that this organization is guilty of practices that should not be tolerated.

He says: "It has been said 'he that hasteneth to be rich is not wise' and that 'the avaricious man troubleth his whole household.' And again he says that in pooling we encourage covetousness, and he would make us out a pretty hard set. He tells you that last year, for the sake of getting 7c a pound for tobacco, you had to pay $21,000 and then goes on and offers to do all this business for one-half of one per cent. Well, we don't care much for this criticism, for the American Society of Equity is a great and noble organization and all that this big-hearted man has said reminds us of the story of the ox down in Texas, when the goat lit on his horn. The goat asked the ox if he had any objection to his being there, when the noble animal remarked, 'I should not have known you were there if you had not told me.' But we will not criticize the plans of any man till we know what they are, so we will ask the gentleman to just submit his plans and then we will be free to offer just such criticism as we think we should.

We wish to say we have noticed this article of Mr. McAdams because it was addressed to the A. S. of E. and this organization was brought into being to protect the farmer and of course this covers the tobacco grower. Now if Mr. McAdams' plan would force all tobacco of this district to go to Owensboro to be sold, certainly we would not want his plan, for it was centralized effort that brought about conditions which oppressed the tobacco grower and to defeat which the American Society of Equity stands to-day. But come on with your plan and let us see, and then we will consider whether under that proposed plan, when put in practice, we could demand and obtain 7c for tobacco, as the gentleman admits we got last year.

We want to suggest just here that perhaps the untiring efforts of these men that are classed as usurers, covetous, and withal very hard fellows, and that cost the tobacco growers the enormous sum of $21,000 (and maintained receiving points close to home) brought to the growers of this same tobacco, many times $21,000 which you will never be able to get if you undertake to sell without pooling. So we will stop just here till we have another chapter from the philanthropic mind of Mr. McAdams.

Good Roads Meeting.
The Good Roads meeting at court house Monday was not very largely attended on account of the extremely bad weather. In fact the meetings scheduled for the latter part of last week had to be abandoned on account of the weather, but will be held some time in the future by County Judge Jno. B. Wilson and Road Engineer Thos. H. Benton. Notice of the meetings will appear in these columns.

The County Judge, County Road Engineer and the Justices of the Peace are all thoroughly aroused over the betterment of the roads and if met half way by the progressive citizens throughout the county (and we have many such) we predict a wonderful change in the condition of the roads in Ohio county in the near future.

Fiscal Court in Session.
The Ohio County Fiscal Court met in an adjourned session at court hall Monday with County Judge Jno. B. Wilson, County Attorney C. E. Smith, Justices Ed Shown, Sam W. Leach, L. A. Daniel, R. C. Tichenor, Winson Smith, W. S. Dean, B. F. Rice and B. W. Taylor, and Road Engineer T. H. Benton, present.

The court met to discuss plans and devise means for the working of the roads of the county, as well as some other routine business left over from the January meeting.

The report of the committee composed of Messrs. W. S. Tinsley and Jno. T. Moore, appointed to ascertain the indebtedness of Ohio County, will be filed before the court adjourns to-day.

The District Convention of the United Mine Workers convenes in Louisville, Ky., on March 3d. It will possibly last a month or more, this being a constitutional and scale convention together. Among those who will represent the district as officials are: John T. Mains, Chas. W. Mullikin, (the latter will represent the Broadway miners as a delegate) Alva Fogle, V. M. Render, J. D. Walker, W. D. Duncan, of Muhlenberg, and Chas. G. Shacklett, of Island, McLean county. No one can say at the present outlook just how long the convention will last. There will be some 200 delegates in attendance, representing the 1,000 coal miners of District 23. Mr. Mullikin will visit his mother and other relatives in Mt. Olivet, Ky., before returning home.

DEATH OF MRS. HEWLETT AT PLEASANT RIDGE

Mrs. W. T. Hewlett, an aged and respected woman of the Pleasant Ridge neighborhood, passed away on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, after an illness of about nine days. Pneumonia was the cause of her death. She was born in Virginia, and at the time of her death was eighty-three years old. Her husband died about four years ago. The deceased is survived by seven children: Mrs. Addie Westfield, Mrs. Ella Westfield, Miss Bettie Hewlett, D. C. Hewlett, W. T. Hewlett and J. R. Hewlett, of Pleasant Ridge, and T. H. Hewlett, of De Leon, Fla.

The funeral services were conducted from the residence at 9 o'clock Friday morning, Rev. A. N. Couch officiating. The remains were taken to Owensboro for interment.

Mrs. Hewlett was the grandmother of Miss Tina Yeiser and mother-in-law of Mr. N. A. Yeiser, of Hartford. She was one of the most beloved women of her section and will be greatly missed.

Mrs. Thomas Greer Dead.

Mrs. Amanda Greer, wife of Mr. Thomas Greer, died very suddenly at her residence near Boda, this county, Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. After funeral services conducted by her pastor, Rev. B. W. Napier, at Mt. Hermon church at 2 o'clock this afternoon, her remains will be interred in the Mt. Hermon church burying grounds.

The deceased, who had long been a consistent member of the M. E. Church, South, leaves a husband, two sons, T. S. Greer, Olivet, Ill.; O. R. Greer, Beaver Dam, and two daughters, Mrs. Z. Wayne Ellis, of Sturgis, and Miss Alberta Greer, Hartford, Route 2.

The deceased had been in declining health for several months, but was as well as usual up to a few seconds before her death. She was sitting talking to her husband and all at once without any warning she fell back in her chair in apparent faint and expired in a few seconds. The physician, who was hastily sent for, said death was due to the bursting of a blood vessel in the brain.

It can be truly said that a good christian woman has been called to her final rest. Her absent sons and daughter were notified by telegram and reached home as soon as it was possible.

BEAUTIFUL GIRLS ARE VICTIMS OF KIDNAPERS

Fashionably Attired Man and Woman Try To Lure Girls Into Auto.

Philadelphia, Feb. 14.—Three hundred and twenty-seven women and girls disappeared from their homes in this city during 1913, and, although the police and private detectives have made every effort to find them, searches have been unsuccessful. In many cases, the police admit that they believe the young girls are in the hands of white slavers or have been captives in disreputable resorts so long that they fear to face their families.

The police refused to make this acknowledgment until recently, when, through three separate attempts at kidnapping party young girls by a woman and man in an automobile, the conclusion has been forced upon the authorities that there is more in the disappearance than the running away from home.

Twice during the last week a highpowered car has stopped before Chestnut-street candy stores and a handsomely gowned inmate has endeavored to make engagements with the prettiest of the store girls "to take them riding." In one case a young woman was thrown forcibly into the automobile, but she made such an outcry that the man and woman occupants were glad to drop her, throw on the high-gear and sped away.

But the police declare that all of the unaccounted for disappearances cannot be charged to white slavers. In many cases, they say, their investigation shows that the women who have been reported as having disappeared are married, and a careful investigation has shown that there usually was another man in the case other than the deserted husband.

During 1913 there were 1,372 disappearances reported in the city. In nearly every case where the disappearance recited was that of a man, his disappearance has been reported in a few days or his body is found in the river. But in the case of young girls the police have been so much at sea that the "Missing Bureau" has been enlarged by the addition of several investigators.

THE JEW.

A Jewish boy came to this country 50 years ago, with little in his purse but a boundless ambition in his heart. He had determination, courage and physical strength. He was honest and trustworthy. He had been taught by virtuous parents and he brought their benediction with him when he landed, a stranger in a strange land.

Beginning as an humble errand boy in a shop, he rose to a place behind the counter and speedily to the ownership of a little establishment. Small it was, but it was the day of opportunity and he made the most of his.

Fifty years have passed. The monument to his zeal and integrity is a magnificent business block, one of the largest of its kind on the most fashionable thoroughfare of trade in the greatest city of the land. Here the little Jewish boy reached the culmination of his aspirations.

His goal had been success. He achieved it beyond his wildest dreams. Wealth poured in upon him in a ceaseless and increasing stream. He devoted much of it to the care and comfort of an army of employees. He became fascinated with the love of art. For a bit of porcelain $1,000 was a common price, $10,000 for a rare vase and $250,000 for a beautiful painting.

Thus he enjoyed the fruits of his labor.

The surging crowd on the city's royal highway on a week-day morning saw, with surprise, every iron shutter on the great building of the merchant prince drawn to the sidewalk. The rich display of priceless goods in the show windows was hidden from sight. Upon the door the passing throng eagerly read the little white placard: "Closed on account of the death of the proprietor."

$50,000,000 in 50 years—a million a year! Shall we begrudge it to the earner? Shall we denounce him for his success? Shall we spurn his money as "tainted"? Shall we revile the Jew for his riches?

The immigrant boy became a merchant prince, a lover of mankind and a generous dispenser of help for the needy. It is not a tale of one great city in our favored land. It is an oft-told tale in many American cities and of many a noble-minded Jew.

This is a land of opportunity for all. Let envy rest!—[Leslie's Weekly.]

FINE LIBRARY BURNED BY THE ARSON SQUAD

Birmingham, Eng., Feb. 14.—The Carnegie Library at Northfield, Worcestershire, six miles south of Birmingham, was to-day destroyed by fire set by an arson squad of suffragettes. All the books were burned and only the shell of the building was left standing. Papers were found strewn around the place bearing the words "To Start Your New Library. Give Women the Vote."

A tube charged with high explosives, and covered with a quantity of suffrage literature was found today on a window sill of Moor Green Hall, Highbury, near here, the residence of Arthur Chamberlain, brother of the Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain.

A fuse attached to the bomb was connected with a photographer's lamp in which a candle had been burning. The flame, however, was extinguished by the wind before it reached the fuse.

A postcard addressed to Reginald McKenna, Home Secretary, was found nearby. It bore the words "Militancy is not dead, but if you are not already, you soon will be."

How is Your Boiler?

It has been stated that a man's stomach is his boiler, his body is his engine and his mouth the fire box. Is your boiler (stomach) in good working order or is it so weak that it will not stand a full load and not able to supply the needed energy to your engine (body)? If you have any trouble with your stomach Chamberlain's Tablets will do you good. They strengthen and invigorate the stomach and enable it to do its work naturally. Many very remarkable cures of stomach trouble have been effected by them. For sale by all dealers.

"GHOST OF PAST," THIEF, AGED 70, IS ARRESTED

New York, Feb. 14.—New York's oldest pickpocket, 70 years of age, scarcely able to walk, but still active in petty crime, added to-day another arrest to his long record.

His name is John Hanley; the police call him "The Ghost of the Past." He was caught stealing a purse from a girl in a crowd boarding a trolley car.

"I've been in the business for forty years," said Hanley, "and in jail most of the time. My father tried to make me a stonecutter, but I was too delicate to work. What chance is there now for an old man like me?"

Hanley was first arrested as a pickpocket in 1874.

Specifications Wanted.

A school teacher resorted to her pupils "The Landing of the Pilgrims," and after she had finished she requested each pupil to try and draw from his or her imagination a picture of Plymouth Rock. Most of them went to work at once, but one little fellow hesitated, and at length raised his hand.

"Well, Willie, what is it?" asked the teacher.

"Please, ma'am, do you want us to draw a hen or a rooster?"—[The Congregationalist.]

AUTOMOBILE KILLINGS IN CITY OF LOUISVILLE

Do Not Seem To Be a Very Serious Matter With The Juries.

Joseph F. Burghard, whose automobile killed Edward Messmer, a baker, at Fourteenth street and Broadway early New Year's day, was acquitted by a jury in Judge James P. Gregory's court yesterday afternoon, the jury deliberating an hour and forty-five minutes.

The foregoing statement is taken from this morning's Courier-Journal. It will be noted that the killing of Messmer occurred "early New Year's day." The New Year, we are told, is the time for the making of new resolutions.

Prior to the New Year of 1914 it was an accepted fact that, by a resolution to which all juries in such cases adhered, the fine for such killings should in no instance exceed $200. If the 1914 resolution is adhered to by future juries, such killings will, in no instance, be subject to a fine. Court costs, attorneys' fees and a certain measure of disagreeable publicity will be considered a sufficient punishment.

The undisputed facts in the Messmer killing are as follows: There was a New Year's Eve party at which champagne added to the gaiety. Burghard took all but one of his guests to their homes, and was returning with him when Messmer and a companion started to cross the street at Fourteenth and Broadway. The evidence for the defense is that the machine, at the time Messmer was struck, was not being driven at a greater rate of speed than fifteen miles an hour. The evidence of the Coroner is that Messmer's body was so crushed and mutilated as to lead to surmise whether any part of it would have been discovered had the machine been actually driven at forty miles an hour, as some of the witnesses testified. That the defendant, after his car struck Messmer, failed to stop, and drove off at what even he admits to be a rapid rate, is not controverted. That his attorney offered to pay a fine before the case went to the jury is admitted both by Mr. Edwards and by Mr. Huffaker.

The defendant was acquitted. In the light of that acquittal it is difficult to forecast the circumstances under which a conviction can be secured.

For its part, The Times is not greatly impressed either with the wisdom or the justice of the 1914 resolution of Louisville juries in automobile killings.—[Louisville Times.]

Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Rev. James A. Lewis, Milaca, Minn., writes: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been a needed and welcome guest in our home for a number of years. I highly recommend it to my fellows as being a medicine worthy of trial in cases of colds, coughs and croup." Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a trial and we are confident you will find it very effective and continue to use it as occasion requires for years to come, as many others have done. FURS.

Furs are worn by ladies in cold weather in order to overheat themselves, and to cause other ladies to be envious.

Furs are valuable in proportion to the success with which the original owners have been killed off.

Every set of furs is a monument to a murder, and no lady's wardrobe is complete without them.

Only one thought makes us sad when we think of furs. All the animals that are still left are in entire ignorance of the glory that the rest of their companions, whose skins are largely worn on avenues and in limousine have come into. If they could only know this, how they would swell with pride!—[Life.]

Religious Fervor.

Rachel Green, colored, suffered a dislocated and badly sprained knee last night while she was attending religious services at the Main-street colored Baptist church, when another woman began to shout and jumped into her lap.

The victim of this unusual accident was late in getting to church, and as there was a large crowd she was forced to go to the front pew to find a seat. When the other woman began to shout, her fervor was such that she got up on the bench and ran down it and jumped into the Green woman's lap. She fell as she did so, and when she was lifted up the Green woman couldn't get up.—[Hopkinsville New Era.]

METHODISTS IMMERSUED IN CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Bowling Green, Ky., Feb. 14.—A rather anomalous religious situation developed here when several persons were received into the membership of the State-street Methodist church at the First Christian church. This was due to the fact that they insisted upon baptism by immersion, a rite that could not be administered at the State-street church because it is without a baptistry. The actual immersion was performed by the pastor of the Christian church, the pastor of the State-street church saying the words that made the applicants members of the Methodist church.

So far as known this is the first incident of the kind in this section of Kentucky.

JAPAN'S GREAT NEED.

The Kobe district of Japan has a population of 5,471,293.

There about 15,000 Christians of all denominations in this district. One in every 400 of the population is Christian. There is about one evangelistic missionary to every 78,000 and one Japanese preacher to every 28,000 of the population; 356 towns with populations running from 1,000 to 5,000 have no Christian work at all.

Osaka, next to the largest city in Japan and the chief industrial and commercial city, has a population of 1,250,000.

Kyoto, the third largest city in Japan, for centuries the capital of the empire, has a population of 453,000.

Kobe, the chief port of Japan, has a population of 450,000.

Sakai, a manufacturing town, has a population of 52,700.

Fushimi, a close neighbor to Kyoto, with an army post, has a population of more than 40,000.

Himeji, with an army post, has a population of 38,000.

In a recent report of the work in this district a missionary says:

"In intelligence, push and energy, the people in the three cities of Osaka, Kyoto and Kobe will compare favorably with the people in any country on the globe. But they are Buddhists and Shintoists, and even tho' they are not so scant in clothing as the blacks in Africa or so low in the scale of human life as some semi-barbaric races, they are just as deserving of the Gospel of Jesus Christ as the African or Hindu or any other backward people."

"Progress in civilization calls for correct and saving ideas in religion. It is the responsibility of Christian civilized nations to meet the needs of civilized Japan. With false rumors about our mission cause in Japan constantly repeated from pulpit, platform and press in America; with the critical attitude of the American people and, to some extent, of the churches of America toward Japan; and with decreasing interest in Japan as a mission field, the situation of missionaries here is embarrassing and the outlook seems gloomy indeed."

SERIOUS ERROR IN HARTFORD.

Ohio County Citizens Will Do Well To Profit By the Following.

Many fatal cases of kidney disease have reached an incurable stage because the patient did not understand the symptoms. Even today in Hartford there are many residents making the same serious error. They attribute their mysterious aches and pains to overwork, or worry, or perhaps, when all the time their rheumatic pains, backache and bladder irregularities are most probably due to weak and ailing kidneys. If you are ill, if your kidneys are out of order, profit by this Hartford resident's experience.

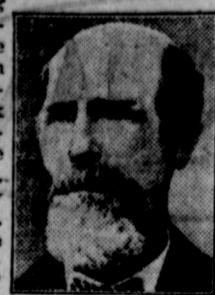

Henry Nall, Hartford, Ky., says: "I had pains in my back and in my sides. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I procured a box at the Ohio County Drug Co. They did me a world of good. I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone suffering from kidney trouble."

A CLERGYMAN'S STORY Came Near Losing His Life—How He Escaped

The following letter was received by The Peruna Co., from Rev. G. W. Roberts, R. R. 2, Box 27, Hartsell, Alabama, under date of April 2, 1904, which is exactly nine years ago. He says: "I take pleasure in informing you of what your Peruna has done for me after three years of suffering. I had tried the treatments of several doctors, also home remedies, but they failed and all hope had gone. My friends, like myself, thought I was in the last stages of consumption."

REV. G. W. ROBERTS, R. R. 2, Box 27, Hartsell, Ala.

"My daughter brought me a bottle of Peruna and plead with me to try it. I had got so weak I had lost my voice, and I thought it no use. That was in May, 1902. I began to take it, according to directions. I wrote to you, and you gave me your kind advice."

"I soon felt better, my cough began to give way, and the expectation lessened. I have taken fourteen bottles. I feel well, eat hearty, sleep soundly, weigh as much as I ever did, do considerable work on my farm, and attend to my other business. My friends seem astonished at my recovery."

"I wish to thank you for your kind advice and the books you have sent me. I shall ever praise your medicine and hope that you may enjoy a long life."

It will be observed that Rev. Roberts waited two years after he began to use Peruna, before he wrote the above letter to The Peruna Co. So that his apparent recovery could not possibly have been temporary relief.

In a later letter to The Peruna Co., dated September 22, 1906, Rev. Roberts says: "I am a great friend of Peruna. By the use of Dr. Hartman's advice I am here to-day, able to be with my family and attend to my business."

Ask Your Druggist for Free Peruna Lucky Day Almanac for 1914.

We quote from another letter, dated December 10, 1906: "I praise Peruna to all the sick. The people know my case, and they praise it also."

In a letter dated November 22, 1909, we quote Rev. Roberts: "Peruna gave me back my life ten years ago. All my acquaintances know that. I am certainly thankful to you for your kindness."

In a later letter, dated January 13, 1910, he says: "I shall ever in the future, as in the past, be ready to speak in praise of Peruna to all sufferers. I believe my miraculous cure has been the means of many others being cured in this country."

From a letter of September 5, 1911, we quote a few words: "I am still among the living. As to Peruna, I do not feel that I have words to express the faith I have in its merits. I feel that Peruna has been the means, through the kind providence of God, of prolonging my life for more than ten years."

We quote a still later letter, October 31, 1912. He says: "I took a severe cold three weeks ago. I at once sent for Peruna. Have been taking it two weeks. I am now better. I consider that Peruna has carried me over a dozen years of life. I always stand ready to answer any question in reference to Peruna."

We quote from his last letter, dated January 2, 1913: "Dear Friends: I wish this bright New Year to express my thanks to you for your kindness. Trusting that you may have a successful and happy year, and that your medicine may prove a blessing to many as it has to me. I am yours as ever, G. W. Roberts, Hartsell, Alabama, R. F. D. 2, Box 27."

It is not necessary for us to add any words to this story. The eloquence and pathos of these letters are more convincing than arguments or affidavits. Who can doubt the clergyman's story? Who can doubt that Peruna saved his life?

Every home should be provided with the last edition of the "His of Life," sent free by the Peruna Co., Columbus, Ohio.

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

relieves rheumatism quickly. It stimulates the circulation—instantly relieves stiffness and soreness of muscles and joints. Don't rub—it penetrates.

Rheumatism Never Returned

"I am a travelling man and about one year ago I was laid up with rheumatism and could not walk. A friend recommended Sloan's Liniment and the morning after I used it my knee was all O.K. and it has never bothered me since. I always keep my Liniment in the house and carry it with me on the road."—Mr. Thomas S. Barker, West Philadelphia, Pa.

Rheumatism Neuralgia

Stiffness Vanished

"I suffered with an awful stiffness in my legs. That night I gave my legs a good rubbing with Sloan's Liniment and believe me, next morning I could jump out of bed. I have been supplied with a bottle, ever since."—Mr. A. Moore of Manchester, N. H.

Sprained Ankle Relieved

"I was ill for a long time with a severely sprained ankle. I got a bottle of Sloan's Liniment and now I am able to be about and can walk a great deal. I write this because I think you deserve a lot of credit for putting such a fine Liniment on the market and I shall always take time to recommend Dr. Sloan's Liniment."—Mrs. Charles House of Baltimore, Md.

Sloan's Liniment gives a grateful sensation of comfort. Good for sprains, neuralgia, sore throat and toothache. Use it now.

House Is Stirred By Eloquence Of Founder Of Moonlight Schools.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 12.—Stirred to enthusiasm by the convincing eloquence of Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart, of Rowan county, founder of the famous moonlight schools, the House of Representatives yesterday afternoon swept aside all parliamentary barriers by unanimous consent and passed the measure in which she is interested by a vote of 75 to 0.

The measure is the Reed bill to create a State Illiteracy Commission to devise ways and means of reducing the percentage of illiterates in the State of Kentucky. An identical bill is pending in the Senate.

Mrs. Stewart addressed the House, in committee of the whole, in the interest of the measure. She talked about one hour, explaining the work which is being done in Rowan county, where illiteracy has been almost eliminated.

Her arguments were so effective that after the close of her address the rules were suspended by unanimous consent, the bill called up and placed upon its passage without debate. Mrs. Stewart was permitted the unprecedented privilege of remaining on the floor during the roll-call.

Action upon the bill was followed by the launching of a movement looking to the nomination of Mrs. Stewart for the position of State Superintendent of Public Instruction. Mrs. Stewart herself, declined to show much interest; but many of her friends in the General Assembly declare that they are going to create such a demand for her to make the race that she will feel bound to accept.

Representative Shelton M. Sauley, of Lincoln county, declared

Hartford Drug Stores Are Giving Away a Limited Supply of the
New External Vapor Treatment.

Applied Over Throat and Chest, It
Relieves Colds Over Night—
Croup in Fifteen Minutes.

Local druggists report a remarkable demand for the new vapor treatment for croup and cold troubles. Vick's Croup and Pneumonia Salve, recently introduced here from North Carolina. This treatment is in the form of a salve that is applied externally over the chest and throat. The heat of the body releases the soothing, antiseptic vapors of Eucalyptol, Thymol, Menthol, Camphor, Pinus Sylvestris, etc., which are inhaled with every breath through the air passages direct to the lungs. At the same time Vick's is absorbed through the skin, taking out the soreness.

In croup cases the breathing is made easier in five minutes, and in fifteen minutes the worst cases are relieved. In cases of severe colds, hot wet towels are first applied to the chest and throat to open the pores of the skin. Follow this with a good application of Vick's and cover with a warm flannel cloth. The vapors inhaled all night long loosen the phlegm and open the air passages. The next morning the head is clear and the soreness gone from the lungs.

A number of the more enterprising druggists have made arrangements with the manufacturers by which they are allowed to give away a limited number of 25-cent packages free to their customers.

If your druggist has given away all his free packages, you can purchase a 25c.50c or $1 jar on 30 days' trial. With each purchase you are given a refund blank, good for your money back if you do not find Vick's the best thing you have ever tried.

Among the druggists who are giving away free packages is James H. Williams, 214 Main street, Hartford, Ky.

that the next edition of the Stanford Interior Journal, of which he is publisher, will announce her as his choice for the Democratic nomination.

Mrs. Stewart, her friends contend, is eligible for the position under the new school laws. They think that if elected she can do much toward relieving Kentucky of the odium of being one of the most illiterate States in the Union—perhaps as much as she has already done for Rowan county.

A UNIQUE MARRIAGE CEREMONY OBSERVED

In Sumner county, Tennessee, lives an Irish magistrate, a man of liberal education and a full quota of that mother wit for which his people are noted. A short time ago a negro pair named Jim and Bet called upon the squire to be united "for better or worse," probably the latter. Having had some notice of their coming he prepared and actually used this unique ceremony:

"Jim, will you take Bet
Without any regret,
To love and to cherish,
Till one of you perish
And is laid under the sod,
So help you God?"

Jim having given the usual affirmative answer, the squire turned to Bet.

"Bet, will you take Jim
And cling to him
Both out and in
Through thick and thin,
Holding him to your heart
Till death does you part?"

Bet modestly acquiesced and the newly married couple were dismissed with this "topper oved all."

"Through life's alternate joy and strife
I now pronounce you man and wife.
Go up life's hill till you get to the level,
And salute your bride, you rusty black devil."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

THE INTOLERANT SPIRIT.
(William H. Cundiff.)
Jealousy of another's fair name, enviousness of his success and hatred of his principles and of his integrity of character, attest the narrowness, the bigotry, and the pusillanimity of the small and undeveloped mind.

Mental babes, fools and ignoramuses, are ever ready to decry the name of another who is their mental, moral or physical superior. He whose soul would rattle in a mustard seed, and whose mind is a small and unknown quantity, makes haste to impugn the motives and to asperse the character of the great thinker and reasoner, by poisoning truth, misrepresenting principles, and casting odium upon him and his acts, by every artifice known to the creed and intolerant spirit which is ever at war with the good, the true, and the noble, which goes to make a better, a more social, and a more rational life for man.

The selfishness and sordidness of the individualistic, capitalistic and competitive system engenders hate, greed, narrowness of mind, and baseness of soul in its beneficiaries and its victims. Under the awful workings of a coarse individualism and a materialistic and gross capitalism there is small chance for the lofty spirit imbued with a love for humanity. The barely selfish idea too often precludes the possibility of the social and altruistic principle.

While the idealist and social reformer may strive for better economic conditions and a more enlightened civilization, the exploiter seeks more profits wrung from labor, and the intolerant spirit is as full of the restriction, the coercion and the repression of capitalism as a snake is of venom.

A Pennsylvania man requested during his last illness that he be buried in a coffin made from a walnut tree in his yard that he had planted himself, and his wishes were carried out.

HOBSON RESOLUTION COMMANDING INTEREST

It Provides For Temperance Amendment to National Constitution.

Considerable interest is manifested everywhere in the resolution recently introduced by Congressman Hobson and Senator Morris Shepherd, providing for a Temperance amendment to the National Constitution. Their resolution was introduced during the Temperance demonstration at the National capitol. It is as follows:

Proposed Amendment.
Whereas, exact scientific research has demonstrated that alcohol is a narcotic poison, destructive and degenerating to the human organism and that its distribution as a beverage or contained in food lays a staggering economic burden upon the shoulders of the people, lowering to an appalling degree the average standard of character of our citizenship, thereby undermining the public morals and the foundation of free institutions, produces widespread crime, pauperism, and insanity, inflicts disease and untimely death upon hundreds of thousands of citizens and blights with degeneracy their children unborn, threatening the future integrity and the very life of the Nation: Therefore be it

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two-thirds of each House concurring therein), That the following amendment of the Constitution be and hereby is, proposed to the States, to become valid as a part of the Constitution when ratified by the Legislatures of the several States as provided by the Constitution:

Section 1. The sale, manufacture for sale, transportation for sale, importation for sale, and exportation for sale of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes in the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are forever prohibited.

Section 2. Congress shall have power to provide for the manufacture, sale, importation and transportation of intoxicating liquors for sacramental, medicinal, mechanical, pharmaceutical or scientific purposes or for use in the arts, and shall have power to enforce this article by all lawful legislation.

The men who write the local live stock, board of trade and financial news for The Chicago Record-Herald are experienced staff editors whose years of trusted acquaintance with leading men often give them inside tips on important news in advance of other papers. The only morning newspaper in Chicago having its own special correspondent to cover the New York stock market is The Record-Herald. George S. Beachel's daily telegraphic reports from the stock and money markets of Wall street are models of insight and accuracy. The Record-Herald makes it a point to cover in full the financial reports of corporations and the banking activities of Chicago and the West. The "Speculative Gossip" and notes of Wall street and LaSalle street happenings are valued by the largest brokers for their glimpses of real "inside history" of the various markets.

Harry Thaw's Birthday.
Concord, N. H., Feb. 12.—Harry K. Thaw, who is sojourning in Concord while he awaits the decision of the higher courts as to whether he shall be given his freedom or returned to the asylum for the criminal insane at Mattawan, N. Y., quietly celebrated his forty-fourth birthday anniversary to-day. The morning mail brought him messages of greeting from his mother and other members of his family.

FEUD MAY RESULT IF PIKE COUNTY IS SPLIT

Opponents and Advocates of Bill Almost At Dagger's Point.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 14.—Nearly 100 grim-faced mountaineers from Pike county appeared before the Senate Committee of Kentucky statutes at the State Capitol to protest against the division of Pike county as contemplated in a bill which has been introduced. Half as many more were present to advocate the division and the creation of the new county, to be named in honor of John C. C. Mayo.

Although the chamber contained seats for three the number present, nearly all the delegation remained standing throughout the hearing, which began at 8:30 o'clock and lasted until after midnight.

Opponents of the bill declare that it is enacted a feud will be precipitated in Pike county which will become notorious in the annals of Kentucky. The extreme bitterness between the opposing factions has been given to-night as the reason for holding the meeting at the State Capitol instead of the hotel.

The real object of the proposed division, according to those opposing it, is to enable Wallace J. and Ben Williamson, who are pushing the plan, to carry out a big real estate project. They declare that the Williamsons, who live in West Virginia, own most of the land around the proposed new county seat, South Williamson; another reason given is that the advocates of the bill think they can make a wet county of the new county as a feeder to the adjoining West Virginia county, which goes dry in June. The Williamsons own a toll bridge between the two counties.

Judge John F. Hager opened the case in behalf of the advocates of the division. He presented a petition containing 1,350 signatures. The speaker declared that the division is made necessary by the size of the county and the difficulty of travel therein. He denied that the Williamsons have any unworthy motive in fostering the project, but admitted that they own land around the proposed county site.

BEAVER DAM.
Feb. 16.—Last week Marshal Stevens arrested a suspicious looking character and arraigned him in Police Court. He was loaded with whiskey and pistols. While they had no proof that he was selling whiskey, he was fined $25 and ten days in the calaboose for carrying concealed deadly weapons. Beaver Dam is not advertising for no-tellers at present. If that man has a pal he had better move his camp, for if Marshal Stevens gets his hands on him it will be no child's play.

Last Saturday evening was church meeting at the Baptist church and "Uncle Pete" Walker, as he is called, made a talk to the church. He said among other things that 51 years ago that evening he was received into that church. Although the church had a membership at that time of nearly 200, there are only five of that number who are members of that church to-day.

They are Nathaniel Shultz, Mrs. Elizabeth Williams, Mrs. Sam Paxton, Mrs. P. P. Walker and William Maddox. Others have been lettered off, but most of them have crossed the River of Death. Mr. Walker will soon pass his 80th mile stone, but attends his church meeting in all good weather.

Mrs. Duck Daniel, who has been very ill of pneumonia, is improving. Mr. Byron Austin has had a severe case of pneumonia, but is some better.

Mr. E. B. Courtney, an insurance man from Paducah, is in town this week. He has rented a house and will move to our town next week.

Miss Ellen Lawrence, of Greenville, was in town visiting friends last week.

The revival meeting at the Methodist church closed last night. The results were 21 conversions and the members greatly revived.

Mrs. Stanley, widow of the late Capt. Stanley, has gone home with her daughter, Mrs. Will Shearer, who lives in McAllister, Okla., to spend the balance of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Gorman, of Tulsa, Ok., arrived in town last week. We have not learned whether they have come to stay or not.

Mr. J. D. Williams attended a meeting of the John Deering Machine Co., in St. Louis, last week.

Miss Oda Greer, of Taylorfield, visited Miss Dona Ralph Friday night.

Misses Pearl Boardman and Prudie Greer, of Taylorfield, spent Friday night with Miss Eunice Ralph.

Mr. J. L. Patton and Mr. H. W. Ralph went to Owensboro Tuesday on business.

The good road meeting which was held here Wednesday, February 11, was largely attended.

TWENTY DOLLARS GOLD IN ANONYMOUS LETTER
Washington, Feb. 14.—The Postoffice Department is to-day trying to locate a public-spirited citizen who sent President Wilson an anonymous letter enclosing four $5 gold pieces as a contribution for the proposed acquisition of telephone and telegraph lines by the Government. The letter, dated "Feb. 14" was mailed from San Francisco and signed with letters of the Alphabet. White House officials turned it over to the Postoffice Department and steps were taken to-day to locate the sender in order that the money be returned. If the writer cannot be found, the gold will be covered into the treasury, if the laws will permit.

Speaking of the proposed acquisition of telephone and telegraph lines the author of the letter says "that's fine," and adds: "I think some of the money for this purpose should be contributed by the people. I am a poor stenographer earning less than $600 a year, but I enclose herewith $20 in gold as a starter. Now let others contribute according to their income. Here is a chance for those who talk about patriotism to show their patriotism. Let every person in the United States contribute."

PRESENT POPULATION OF THE ENTIRE WORLD

Is Over 1,900,000,000—Debt Of $42,960,000,000 Is Also Shown.

Antwerp, Feb. 14.—A debt of $42,960,000,000 is the total shown in the accounts of all the nations of the world, according to the bureau of universal statistics which has just announced its figures for the year 1912. Of this total public indebtedness thirty-two millions are charged against Europe alone. A century ago the public debt of all countries amounted to only a little over seven millions.

The population of the earth is now slightly over 1,900,000,000, an increase of 140,000,000 in the past four years, according to the bureau. Asia now has 933,000,000, Europe 484,000,000, Africa 188,000,000, America 187,000,000, Oceania 57,000,000.

The world's commerce now amounts to $40,600,000,000 and it is carried on by 55,802 sailing ships and 47,714 steamers. Other figures show a total of 625,000 miles of railroads or enough to girdle the globe twenty-five times.

PENSION WARRANTS TO BE PAID BY J. C. C. MAYO
Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 16.—John C. C. Mayo has consented to pay all the interest-bearing warrants, amounting to about $80,000, issued for the February payment of Confederate pensions. State Treasurer Thomas Rhea mailed out with the pension warrants a statement as follows:

"I am pleased to inform you that John C. C. Mayo has announced he will pay the face value of your warrant. Deposit the warrant in your local bank and instruct them it will be paid without discount when presented at the Paintsville National Bank, Paintsville, Ky. I have made this arrangement with Mr. Mayo because of the condition of the State Treasury, there being no money therein with which to pay these warrants at this time, and because of my determination that you should not be forced to take anything below face value of your claim."

BUYING AWAY FROM HOME NOT ECONOMICAL
People sometimes tell the home merchant that he does not sell as cheaply as metropolitan stores or mail-order houses in more or less distant cities.

Any person wishing to compare the two scales of prices should inquire whether the distant store is selling the same goods. Second grade products can be made to look very handsome in a catalog cut. But the home merchant can not float that kind of goods. They come back to his store too easily.

It is amusing to see the both people will take for trifling sums they think they are saving. They will travel many miles, spend street car fares, pay for luncheons, hotel bills, and tips. They get tired and foot-sore, tramping around overgrown stores separated by long distances. They wait for change, carry bundles, and pay express. They pay a high price in money and energy for supposed economies.

When you buy goods away from home you rarely take them back. The bother and expense looks prohibitive. When you buy at home you would return them if dissatisfied. This takes the time of clerks and frequently the goods have been injured while in your hands.

Where it is so easy to return goods, the customer must be given both the worth of his money, and something suited to his needs. A higher grade of salespeople is thus required in the home store. To make a sale that will stick so near home, the customer must be given intelligent advice.

Thus the public demands, from the home store more competent service than it exacts from the distant merchant. This means additional expense, which is counterbalanced by lower rents and like economies. When you consider how generously the home store responds to all kinds of demands reasonable and unreasonable, the range of its prices is remarkably low.

The Fact Remains

No amount of misrepresentation by the peddlers of alum baking powders, no juggling with chemicals, or pretended analysis, or cooked-up certificates, or falsehoods of any kind, can change the fact that

Royal Baking Powder has been found by the official examinations to be of the highest leavening efficiency, free from alum, and of absolute purity and wholesomeness.

Royal Baking Powder is indispensable for making finest and most economical food.

SIMMONS.
Feb. 16.—The death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tatum Wednesday evening at 6:10 p. m. and took from them their baby Martina. She had been sick for some time with bronchial pneumonia and death had been expected for several days. Its remains were interred in the McDowell burying grounds near Hartford Thursday evening. The death angel was gone only three days when it returned Saturday night and took from Mr. and Mrs. Charles McConnell their baby, Ruth Lea, only 2 months and 24 days old. She had been suffering for some time with an abscess on the brain.

Messrs. G. M. Phipps, M. F. Chumley and Mrs. Dr. Lake have smallpox.

Messrs. Alva Fogle and Chas. W. Mullikin were elected as delegates to represent the local union here and help make a new contract for the miners, beginning April 1, 1914. The convention will be held in Louisville beginning March 3d.

Dr. Anna Shaw Injured.
New York, Feb. 14.—Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National Woman's Suffrage Association, returned to-day from Ithica, where she attended a celebration of her 66th birthday. As she was alighting from the train, she slipped and fell, sustaining a compound fracture of the right ankle.

Closing Day at Sarvis Hill.
Prof. L. C. Taylor closed a very successful school at this place February 13. The per cent. of enrollment based on census was 100. The per cent. of attendance based on census was 72. Prof. Taylor will begin a spring term for the advanced grades February 23. He will have a large class of progressive students, and we are anticipating some fine work will be done. Prof. Taylor has been with us two years and we are glad to have the promise of his services for the ensuing year of 1914-1915.
